Christmas Party

We'll have our traditional Christmas Party on Sunday 18th December, which is also the last day of Nippers until we resume in mid-January.

We're taking donations now for additions to the Christmas hamper, and raffle tickets will be issued in due course.

Officials Course

Surf Life Saving Illawarra has advised that a Level 1 Officials Course is to be held on the 13th and 14th of December at Surf House, 64 Smith St, Wollongong.

The class limit for these 9am-5pm sessions is 25 participants, and the last we heard they were up to 18. Enrolment details are available from the indefatigable Sharon Scott 0413 952 474.

Wave Warriors

Wave Warriors is the brainchild of Australian Ironman Superstar Zane Holmes. To be held at North Wollongong from 18-20 January 2012, it's open to Juniors from U11 to U16.

Zane's aim is to develop this fantastic event into the largest three day ocean & beach spectacular on the surf life saving calendar.

Boaties BBQ Volunteers

Col Moodie has had a few people come forward to help set up, run and clean up the BBQ at the boaties' carnival on Saturday 3rd December - but we need more. Remember, this is a major fundraising opportunity for us, which translates directly into better resources and services for our juniors - your children.

Commit now to a couple of hours, from as early as 6.30am to set things up, through breakfast, the lunch rush, the post-event hungries and then cleanup to be finished around 5pm. It's a huge day, and one of the few chances we have to raise a lot of money in one day.

Please phone or email Col Moodie: 0419 104 197 and CMoodie@hatch.com.au.

More Volunteering

Maybe Saturday's a bad day for you. If you can turn a sausage, put egg together with bacon or slap a steak on a sandwich, then slip on the apron on a Sunday morning at the clubhouse. You know it's not right that the same people do it all the time, so do something about it.

Maybe cooking's not your thing. You could always volunteer to help set up the new Juniors room at the clubhouse over the Christmas break. Whatever skills and/or manual labor you can provide will be greatly appreciated. If you can help at all, let Craig St George know.

Maybe you'd rather be on the beach. That's good, because we need a few extra hands to help set up the next round of the Sydney Water Carnival to be hosted at North Wollongong beach on Saturday 26th November. Yes, this Saturday. Turn up at 7.45am and give Craig a surprise.

Need more info about any of this? Contact Club Secretary Sharon Scott on 0413 952 474 or Club Treasurer Corrinne St George on 0423 869 995.
